Hon. Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, Washington, D.C. 20231.

Sir,

Amendment (submitted with Appeal Brief)

Pls amend claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 11, 14, 18, 19, 21 and 22, and add a new claim 23.

In new claim 23, computer readable medium being in form of data signal embodied in a carrier wave" is not new matter. Note that the computer code" of claim 22, upon which claim 23 depends, is being stored in the medium and corresponds to the central program" of the description and as readable on sheet 7, last paragraph, lines 1,2, the central program is being installed in a harddisk of a user computer", this implicitly indicates the central program which may be obtained from a disk or internet, is being transferred to the harddisk in the form of data signal embodied in a carrier wave.

Further, a replacement sheet 7 is submitted herewith for changing the term "unencrypted" in P.7, item 4, second paragraph, line 5, which being a typographical error with the correct term "encrypted", reasons therefor is submitted in Argument A of Appeal Brief.

Respectfully submitted,

Ho Keung, Tse.
